

Since she was a child Maddalena Giacomuzzi has distinguished herself in the musical overview by winning the First Prize in several National and International Competitions: in 2016 she won the Third Prize at the Rina Sala Gallo Piano Competition in Monza and in 2015 she won the First Prize at the 53rd "A. Speranza" International Piano Competition in Taranto and at the 6th Massarosa International Piano Competition. She was selected to take part to the final rounds of the Montreal International Competition in 2017, the Cleveland International Piano Competition in 2016, the Busoni Piano Competition 2017.

Maddalena Giacomuzzi has performed at major festival and venues including Amici della Musica di Verona (Sala Maffeiana), Mantova Musica Festival (Teatro Bibiena), Accademia Chigiana di Siena, International Summer Academy in Salzburg, Amici dell'Opera in Pistoia (Teatro Manzoni), Arena di Verona Foundation (Teatro Filarmonico), Orchestra Sinfonica di San Remo Foundation (Teatro del Casinò), Società dei concerti di Milano, Accademia Filarmonica Romana, Amici della Musica di Padova, auditorium Parco della Musica a Roma (Sala Pettrassi e Spazio Risonanze), Milano Classica, Fondazione "Walton" di Ischia, Settimane al Teatro Olimpico di Vicenza.

She has performed as soloist with the Orchestra of the Arena in Verona, Orchestra Monteverdi of Bozen, the Haydn Orchestra of Trento and Bozen, the Orchestra Verdi of Milan, the Orchestra of Sanremo, Orquestra Sinfonica del Estado de Mexico under the baton of Berislav Sipus, Emir Saul, Stephen Lloyd, Carlo Tenan, Giancarlo de Lorenzo and Gabriela Diaz Alatríste.

Maddalena Giacomuzzi was born in Verona in 1991. She began studying piano at the age of 5 years with Prof. Laura Palmieri and she continued her studies with Prof. Ida Tizzani. She received the diploma at the Conservatory "E. F. Dall'Abaco" in Verona under the guidance of M^o Adriano Ambrosini with full marks, laude and a mention of honour and a scholarship from the Accademia Filarmonica of Verona, reserved for the best graduates of the Conservatorio of Verona (2009). In April 2014 Maddalena graduated with the Master Degree with full marks, laude and a mention of honour at the Conservatorio "C. Monteverdi" in Bolzano, where she studied with M^o Cristiano Burato. During the years 2010-2015 she attended the Accademia "Incontri col Maestro" in Imola where she studied with M^o Leonid Margariús.

In 2017 she completed the Artist Diploma at the Accademia Nazionale di Santa Cecilia in Roma, with M^o Benedetto Lupo, receiving a scholarship offered by the Association Settimane al Teatro Olimpico.

In Summer 2013 she attended the Accademia Dino Ciani with Jeffrey Swann, Claudio Martinez Mehner and Cristiano Burato and she was awarded a prize as the best student of the Academy. In 2014 she was selected to take part to the Konzertarbeitswochen in Goslar where she attended classes by M^o Arie Vardi, while during the Summer 2019 she was invited to take part to the festival Pianofest in the Hamptons with M^o Paul Schenly.

She was also named Fellow of the prestigious 2017 Music Academy Of The West in Santa Barbara, California, having the opportunity to perform, work, and collaborate with Guest Artists like Jeremy Denk, Jerome Lowenthal, Conor Hanick, Robert Mc Donald, Stephen Hough.

Maddalena Giacomuzzi dedicates an important part of her musical activity to chamber music: she completed the Artist Diploma with a specialization in Chamber Music at the Accademia Nazionale di Santa Cecilia, where she studied with M^o Carlo Fabiano. She's also collaborating with cellist Ludovica Rana (Musica Insieme a Bologna, Società dei Concerti di Milano, Accademia Filarmonica Romana, Amici della Musica di Lonigo, Associazione Sfere Sonore a Lecce, Camerata Ducale di Vercelli and at the Steinway Hall of the Academy Musikum in Salisburgo) and Chiara Burattini (Ravello concert society, Accademia dei Cameristi di Bari, Queen's University Belfast, Steinway Society).

Since February 2019 she is on the Piano faculty of the Conservatorio "G. Paisiello" in Taranto, Italy.